

TO OUR CUSTOMER

Kramer Restaurant Group, KRG, has been following the ongoing emergence of COVID-19 we know that the health and safety of our customers are the key to our success.

With that being said, we want to reassure all of our guests that KRG and our restaurants of roughly 150 employees are taking COVID-19 very seriously by implementing Improved cleaning standards to proactively mitigate transmission of the Coronavirus COVID-19 in our establishments.

WHAT WE ARE DOING

- Besides our state health department, we are also following all CDC best practices for the food and service industry.
- All employees have been instructed not to come to work if they show symptoms or are currently sick.
- Our entire staff is trained in thorough and frequent hand-washing sanitizing practices.
- We are closely monitoring the ever-evolving response and will keep following all CDC and state government agencies' mandates.
- Our cleaning team has increased the frequency of disinfecting all hand-contact (tables, door, prep areas, handles, counters, railings, and faucets) before, during business hours
